Who is eligible for Library Express?

Residents of all ages living in the Bloomfield-Eastern Greene County Public Library's service district (Beech Creek, Center, Highland, Jackson, Taylor, and Richland Townships) who are unable to come to the library are eligible for the service. Eligibility reasons may include:

- A temporary or permanent illness
- A temporary or permanent disability
- Extreme transportation problems

What is the procedure for delivery?

1. Eligible resident completes an application.
2. If a patron does not have a library card, one will be issued.
3. A library staff member will conduct a formal interview to establish the patron's profile and use it to select material for the patron on a weekly basis. Special requests for material will also be honored.
4. A library staff member will checkout the material using the patron's library card.
5. The material will then be delivered to the patron's residence and materials from the previous delivery will be collected.

How do I get on board Library Express?

Fill out the application on the reverse flap and mail it to the library. You may also fill out an application in person at the adult circulation desk OR fill out an application on the library's website (bloomfield.lib.in.us).
