

Minor Budget Items

---

In some circumstances, Library expenditures may exceed the budget allocation. In order to properly balance the budget, a transfer of funds from one line item to another is required. If the transfer is within the same category and the amount is less than $1000, the treasurer or the Library Director can transfer the funds without prior board approval.