NSDAR
GREENE COUNTY, INDIANA

*As far as can be determined by preparers, this is a complete record of this cemetery.

MORRIS CHAPEL CEMETERY

This record was compiled by Mrs. Bedonna Bolton Scott and Mrs. Margaret Shirley Collins, both of Linton, Indiana, and Mrs. Mildred Meredith of Indianapolis, Indiana, and is being presented by William Clenny Chapter NSDAR, Greene County, Indiana, same having been typed by Mrs. Julia Moss Skeel.

This cemetery is located South and West of Linton, in Stockton Township, Greene County, Indiana, in Section 17, Township 7 North, Range 7 West, and is directly behind the Morris Chapel Church.

"The Morris Church in the western part (of Stockton Township) is an old organization. Their frame church was built over thirty years ago, and among the membership there were the Stones, the Hales, the Rosses, the Bucks, the Stevensons, the Bryants, the Grahams and many others. Old Zelots Clifford, one of the most famous ministers of the Methodist organization in Western Indiana, who organized as many classes, perhaps, as any other divine, was one of the early ministers of this congregation, and it is stated that he organized the class about 1845. The facts cannot be stated."<sup>1</sup>
